

Cybersafety Links

Compiled by Becky Bloomfield, Holly Springs HS

www.wiredsafety.org An online safety and help group for parents and kids. An excellent up-to-date resource.

www.teenangels.org A great website for teens.....contains a detailed cyberbullying quiz kids can take to see if they have ever been a victim of cyberbullying OR if they have internet behaviors which put them at risk.

www.netsmartz.org An online safety site for parents and kids. Contains cyberbullying videos that can be downloaded....also video vignettes with real-life scenarios.

www.wiredkids.org A website for kids....online safety.

www.bullyonline.org Sites with articles and links about cyberbullying.
www.bullypolice.org
www.cyberbullying.ca
www.bewebaware.ca

www.cyberlawenforcement.org Law enforcement officers online – can make reports regarding cybercams, cyberstalking or child pornography www.cybertipline.com A site where reports can be made if your child has been sent inappropriate material www.myspace.com Social networking websites.

www.facebook.com
www.xanga.com
www.myghetto.com

www.transl8it.com Site that will translate text messages – help to understand abbreviations.

www.whatis.com 500 computer terms defined in layman's language.

www.rider.edu/~suler/psyber/adoles.html A really interesting 9 page article about Adolescents in Cyberspace written by psychologist, John Suler.