North Carolina Graduation Project Rubric Descriptors Presentation Component with Communication Focus

The following rubric provides an objective method of evaluating the presentation component of the Graduation Project. Each of the four levels of performance included in the rubric is identified, along with descriptors of the expectations for each level. It is extremely important that all stakeholders be familiar with the rubrics, especially, parents and students.

Exemplary- Students at this level perform all components at a superior level beyond the level which is required for proficiency. Exemplary work implies that the student has exceeded expectations in every way and has presented a Graduation presentation worthy of showcasing and emulating because of its creative and effective way of communicating research, product, and reflection of the Graduation Project process.

Satisfactory- Students at this level perform all components at a consistent level and demonstrate acceptable proficiency. Satisfactory work implies that the student has worked diligently to do strong work on all components and has presented a presentation that clearly communicates the research, product, and reflection of the graduation process.

Developing/Emerging- Students at this level have not shown sufficient proficiency in research and have not achieved adequate proficiency in some components. Developing/emerging work implies that the student has more work to do to present satisfactory work in order to clearly show all aspects of the Graduation project. Student must resubmit.

Unsatisfactory/Resubmission necessary- Students performing at this level have not achieved proficiency in numerous components and have not met the minimum standards for completion of the Graduation presentation. Resubmission implies that the student has considerable work to do to complete the Graduation presentation and is in need of coaching in order to do so. Student must resubmit.

Not submitted- Student did not submit evidence of any effort completed for the designated task. Student must submit.
